The President's File

Dear members,

It is my great pleasure to welcome you to this issue of Tell Tale in my new role as President of the Swiss Club. I am honoured by the trust you placed in me by electing me at our AGM on April 20, and humbled by the amazing work accomplished by my fellow club and section officers, event volunteers and of course our past president Sascha Frassini. Since February 24, 2012, he had been faithfully serving the Club as president and thankfully for me, he has agreed to remain on the board for another while to ease the transition. Under Sascha's leadership, the Club has continued to thrive by connecting the small but mighty Swiss community of the GTA, and organizing the events that we all love. I'd like to extend my warmest thanks to Sascha for his long tenure as President, and for his continued engagement with this year's National Day and 100th anniversary celebrations. On top of all that, Sascha makes us laugh every year with his participation in the Theatre Group; he will definitely be a tough act to follow!

I'm also happy to have the support of Nadia Berger as our new Vice President. The monthly "Swiss Socials" that Nadia has started running since last year have proven to be popular, and have allowed the Club to reach an even larger portion of the GTA's Swiss community. She has also gracefully agreed to take on the role of Membership Chairperson ad interim, while we look for someone to replace Monika Rüber, who retired from this role after a long tenure. Many thanks to Monika, and to Denise Frassini who stepped down from her role as Entertainment Director, for their service to the Club. Thank you both for your dedication and support.

Besides the elections, our Annual General Meeting also included an address by the Honorary Consul Beat Guldemann, who announced that the Consulate would again be hosting their "Consular Days" in Toronto for people requiring a new Swiss passport. Our delegate at the Organisation of the Swiss Abroad (OSA/ASO), Florence Pasche Guignard of Council of Swiss Abroad, reported on her first year of tenure in this position and about the issues that the OSA is currently working on. Read her full report, as well as more details about our past AGM in the Minutes, which can be found on our website.

As the nice weather seems to have settled for good, it's time for us to look at our upcoming activities for this summer. On July 29, we will once again meet at the Country Heritage Park in Milton ON for our much expected Swiss National Day celebration. Join us for a day of fun for all ages, entertainment and good food. Shop for Swiss groceries and sundries and take a chance to win our fabulous raffle prizes! Look for more information about the event on the first page of this Tell Tale.

As I'm sure you know, our Club is turning 100 this year! To mark the occasion, the entire Swiss community is invited to a flag-raising ceremony on August 1st at 12:00 noon at City Hall. The official ceremony will feature representatives of the Swiss Consulate and Embassy, Toronto City Council, Ontario Protocol, the Swiss Club and the Swiss Canadian Chamber of Commerce, and will be followed by a reception. More details and RSVP instructions in this issue of Tell Tale.

The other big event of the season will be our Anniversary Gala Dinner on September 29 at the Old Mill Restaurant in Toronto. There will be a delicious dinner, entertainment, special guests and more. Don't miss this unique opportunity to celebrate our history! Make sure to register early to secure a spot by using the enclosed form.

Between those three main events, there are many more occasions to get in touch with fellow members this summer! For the soccer fans out there, if the Swiss National Team progresses, join us at the Rushton restaurant on St. Clair West in Toronto to cheer for this year's World Cup. Details will be posted on our Facebook page. Over the long weekend of August 4–6, the Gym section will embark on their traditional canoe trip to Algonquin Park. On August 28, author Diccon Bewes will present a public lecture at the Toronto Reference Library about his book Swiss Watching. On September 8, there will be an Anniversary Cruise in the Muskokas and on September 9, the Amicale Romande will host their popular Raclette at Simeon Park. And of course the Swiss Socials will continue to meet every third Thursday of the month at the Duke of York pub in downtown Toronto. Find more details about these events in this issue of Tell Tale and on our website swissclubtoronto.ca.

August 4-6

Are you interested in a canoe trip? Don't worry if you have never been in a canoe before.

Are you interested in a canoe trip? And don't worry if you have never been in a canoe before. As in past years, the Gym Section is organizing a canoe trip to Algonquin Park on the long weekend August 4 to 6. We leave very early Saturday morning and rent canoes before we enter the park. We start out on Rain Lake and have our eye set on a smaller lake. To get there we will paddle for 5-6 hours and carry canoes and camping gear over a couple of portages. Once there we look for a nice campsite and setup camp for two nights. On Sunday everybody is free to enjoy, relax or explore, soak up some sun or soak in the water, do a little tour with the canoe or some hiking. Then on Monday the real world is already calling again and we will get back to Toronto early evening. This is also a great event to send your visitors from abroad to let them enjoy something different in Canada's wilderness.

If you are interested get in touch with me at 647-966-8014 or by email walter.brunner@sympatico.ca. The cost per person will be about $80-$90, space is limited so it will be first come first serve.

MISS SOPHIE'S ERBE (MISS SOPHIE'S HERITAGE)

Since Ludmilla Stroganoff (Eva Hajda), the famous operetta star, has spent all her money on (mostly younger) men, she is forced to keep giving one goodbye tour after another. Good news though, her stepmother Sophie has died unexpectedly and Ludmilla interrupts her tour to receive her inheritance. Together with her generally unhappy and impoverished assistant Gundula (Edith Zuber), she arrives at "Kuebelstein", her late father Admiral Schneider's estate. After a very unceremonious welcome, Ludmilla is told by Dr. Ross (Rene Waelti), the executor of Miss Sophie's testament, that three more heirs are expected to arrive and everyone will meet at that evening's dinner. Could that mean that she's not the only heir?

The first one is an English dandy, Richard Pommeroy (Franz Zuber), son of late Herold Pommeroy. The second one is greedy Miss Gilla (Stefanie Oechslin), the nurse and brand new wife of the old and feeble Herbert Winterbottom (son of late Henry Winterbottom). The third one is "fashion designer" Siegfried Roy Toby (Sascha Frassini), adopted son of late Leroy Toby. Butler Paul's (Walter Brunner) life is getting very complicated, trying to avoid the sexual advances of Ludmilla and Siegfried. After a horrible meal, cooked by Marlies (Ursula Kohler), she explains to everyone, that the late fathers, who all had been married to Sophie at one time or another, have all died under very suspicious circumstances. Ludmilla cannot understand how Miss Sophie managed to marry all these men, since, in her opinion, Sophie had been a very boring and unsexy individual. What happened, why did Miss Sophie marry all those men, why did they all end up dead and who inherits all her fortune?

We again had three very well received and attended performances in Wellesley, Ottawa and Toronto with over 300 guests in total. The play was very funny with lots of twists and the actors showed their talents again with much enthusiasm and fun. It was again directed by Walter Brunner. Maggie Hess was as usual available if any actors missed/forgot their lines and the set was once again designed by Heike & Arnold Koch.

By the way, the play is a 'sequel' of the famous New Year's Eve sketch 'Dinner for One'

THANK YOU!

As we finally found a new SCT president with Thomas, my tenure as president of the Swiss Club Toronto came to an end after 6 years at the recent AGM.

When I first volunteered as Vice President 8 years ago, I wasn’t aware at that time that just 2 years later (in 2012), I would be taking over as president from Rene Waelti. At that time I probably would not have volunteered in the first place, as I never did anything like this in my life before and was a bit intimidated on the task ahead.

However, I must say, the last 6 years as President have been very interesting and a huge learning experience for me. I didn’t think I could do it 6 years ago, but I did it and I guess I did not do a bad job.

I want to thank you, the members, and the board for the trust in me over the last 6 years.

It has been a pleasure and honor holding this position.

And since as past president I remain on the board for 2 more years, I can continue of being of help to the Swiss Club and the Swiss Community.

I wish Thomas all the best and will do my very best to support him.

Thanks a lot.
Sascha Frassini, Past-President

Swiss Watching: Inside the land of milk and money

Public lecture by author Diccon Bewes
August 28, 2018 - 7:00 PM
Toronto Reference Library, Beeton Auditorium
789 Yonge St, Toronto

The Swiss Club Toronto is honoured to partner with the Toronto Public Library in hosting a lecture by Diccon Bewes, author of Swiss Watching and Slow Train to Switzerland.

Living in the land of milk and money

An outsider on the inside. For the last eight years, Diccon Bewes has been exploring Switzerland and writing about the places, the people, the trains and the chocolate.

He's become the accidental expat expert and in this humorous but insightful talk he'll share some of his observations about Swiss life.

From small talk to Sunday walks, he'll show that there's more to Switzerland than banks and skis, and reveal the true meaning of Swissness.

Diccon is a British travel writer and chocolate lover who has lived in Bern, Switzerland for the past 13 years. His first book, Swiss Watching, became a #1 bestseller and he has since written four more books about Switzerland.

After the talk there will be the chance to buy signed copies of Diccon's books, and refreshments will be served.
